Heritage Bank of Commerce Achieves Top Industry Award

San Jose, California — June 22, 2017, Heritage Commerce Corp (NASDAQ: HTBK), today announced that its subsidiary, Heritage Bank of Commerce, was rated a “Super Premier Performing Bank,” by The Findley Reports, for exceeding the Findley performance criteria based on its 2016 year-end financials.

Since 1967, The Findley Reports of Anaheim, California, has provided the banking industry with performance benchmarking through its annual review; the “Super Premier Performance” is its top designation. Recipients are recognized throughout the California banking industry as institutions that have achieved exceptional financial performance, and the designations are highly regarded.

“For 23 years, Heritage Bank of Commerce has served its local communities and has established itself as a strong, sound leader in the financial services industry,” said Keith Wilton, President and Chief Operating Officer of Heritage Bank of Commerce. “We are very proud to have received this recognition, which places us among the top performing banks in California. This accomplishment is the result of many dedicated professionals focused on serving their customers and achieving the distinction of being among California’s best bankers.”
